OUT TO FIGHT FOR THE 29TH

A NEW OPPOSITION TO MASON HAS ARISEN.

Robert C. Morris Said to Be in It-Newbold Morris and Henry A. Uterhart Sign the Circular Announcing That an Opposition Ticket Will Be Run at the Primaries.

Alexander T. Mason, who has just been chosen the leader of the Twenty-ninth district by the chairman of the Republican county committee, much to the displeasure of the Schwarzler-Ware faction in that district, is going to meet with formidable opposition at the coming primaries from an element entirely distinct from

The Twenty-ninth district contains a lot of Republicans who don't like the combination which they say Mr. Mason has formed with Edward Lauterbach and Senator Elsberg to run the affairs of the district. These Republicans propose to test the power of the Mason-Lauterbach-Elsberg combination on March 29, when delegates are to be elected to the Assembly district and Congress district conventions.

tion has just finished a hard fight with the Ware faction, which was downed only after an appeal to the county committee. Mr. Ware's friends are still sore and assert that Ware was really the district's choice, no matter what the county committee decided. The opposition that has been gradually forming to endeavor to wrest the leadership away from Mason on entirely different principles believes therefore that the present time is about as pro-pitious as any for requesting all Republicans who don't like Mason to stand up and be counted on March 29 instead of waiting until the fall.

organization. The membership of the new club is about 500.

Circulars were mailed yesterday to every one of the 3,000 em cled Republicans of the district, signed by Newbold Morris and Henry A. Uterhart of the campaign committee of the new organization, announcing that a ticket would be put in the field. "The inefficiency of the present leadership," says this circular, "has caused a lack of interest in the political work of our ais rict for the past five years and has resulted in a

The Yerkville Republican Club and the Schwarzler-Ware faction, whose strength is in the upper part of the district, had intended putting up an opposition ticket, also. They abandoned this recently when they learned that plans had already been made by the other elements opposed to Mason to wage a fight at the coming primaries. There will therefore be only two tickets in the field.

ers in the district. Mest of the time that he is to be found at the Twenty-ninth district club, they say, he is in consultation with Messrs. Lauterbach and Elsberg. These consultations are held in a little room adjoining the meeting room, and it is in that room, it is asserted, that tickets are made up and the affairs of the district conducted. No one who is at all unfriendly or distasteful to any one of the three members of this alleged combination receives any consideration, no matter how popular he may be in the district.

After Mayor Low's election We Masser

After Mayor Low's election Mr. Mason, who had then been leader a couple of years, wanted to be Park Commissioner, but Mayor committee, along with others, could have forced Mayor Low to appoint him, and it was Mr. Mason who engineered the deal by which Morris's name was left off of the ticket in the next primaries, when Morris was a candidate for reelection as president of the county committee. Mr. Mason's district was the only district that did not have its printing done through the county committee, and Mr. Morris did not know until the day before the primaries that his name had been dropped. Mr. Morris succeeded just in the nick of time in getting his name in on the ticket in Mr. Strasbourger's district. Mr. Morris's friends were indignant at this treatment and they have since been opposed to Mr. Mason. There are a lot of officeholders in the district, and now that there is open revolt these officeholders, a good many of whom hold State jobs, are being told that unless they get out and shout for the Mason-Lauterbach-Elsberg combination, Gov. Odell will find somebody else to take their jobs.

According to those who have started the opposition there is no desire to raise any other question than that of proper leadership, which should be of a different kind than that of Mr. Mason's, if the district is to remain Republican. The district used to have a Republican majority of nearly 6.000, but this has dwindled steadily.

INCAS' TREASURE FOUND? Bolivian Newspapers Tell About Discovery of $16.000,000 in Pure Gold. The newspapers of Bolivia and Peru are announcing under scare heads that after a search extending through four centuries the treasure of the Peruvian Incas buried in Bolivia, and valued at $16,000,000, has just been discovered by a company of British and American engineers. The Bolivian newspapers tell of great excitement among the natives, because of the belief that gold valued at $30,000,000 more is awaiting a discoverer.

According to the scare head South American stories all this treasure, of the purest gold, was found at Chayaltaya. The legend is that about 370 years ago, at the time of the Spanish conquest, the gold was buried by the Indians for the Peruvian Incas, to be paid over to the Spaniards as a ransom for the liberation of Emperor Atahualpa, but that the money was refused by the Spaniards, who killed the Peruvian Emperor. The treasure remained hidden. Since then innumerable exploring parties, native and foreign, have made fruitless search for the gold. It was by mere accident that the lucky finders came upon the ancient treasure. While making surveys and driving stakes they discovered the fortune. A dispute has now arisen among them as to its division, in which the Bolivian Government has also interested itself. The Government has taken charge of the find, announcing that on account of the difference in the nationalities of the engineers it will act as guardian and supervise its distribution.

CAR AFIRE; NO ENGINES CAME. Alarm Box Out of Order, but Two Buckets of Water Did Business. Something went wrong with the motorbox of a Thirty-fourth street car at Second avenue last night and there was a shower of sparks which drove the motorman from the platform. The electrical display was over in a few seconds, but the car had been put out of business and the passengers were transferred to the next car.

The damaged car was being pushed to the barns when the fireworks started again. Fireman Peter Farrell of Truck 21 jumped on the platform and dumped sand on the motorbox. Meantime the car was being pushed west.

At Fifth avenue the front of the car was ablaze and Fireman Farrell saw that the sand wasn't having much effect. He yelled to Policeman Zendosius to turn in an alarm and Zendosius ran to the box at Thirty-fifth street and Fifth avenue.

The box was out of order and no engines responded. Then the blazing car was rushed over to Sixth avenue, where two starters put out the blaze with a couple of buckets of water.

CLUBHOUSE ON KIDD ISLAND.

Buccaneers" Will Fly the Black Flag of the Famous Pirate Captain.

NEW HAVEN, March 20 .- In memory of Capt. Kidd, a party of young men, headed by George N. Crouse, Yale, '01, of Syracuse, N. Y., have leased "Kidd Island" in the Thimble Island group and will erect thereon a large clubhouse, which will fly the black flag of the pirate captain.

The island is owned by Sherlock Andrews of Rochester, N. Y. It comprises about forty acres and is close to Money Island, where Capt. Kidd is said to have buried his treasure.

A company has been organized and it filed articles of incorporation at Hartford yesterday. It will be known as the Buccaneers. The incorporators are Theodore I. Coe and Frederick O. Drew of New York and E. O. Doran and S. D. Smith of New Haven.

Refusal to Serve Their Conquerors. NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., March 20 .- S. persons in the audience at the New Rochelle People's Forum this afternoon took advantage of the opportunity given them, after the address of Dr. J. G. Schurman. president of Cornell University, to ask him some questions regarding the Philippine Islands. In response to the inquiry: "Ag-Where is he?" Dr. Schurman uinaldo. said:

Aguinaldo, having advocated independence for the islands, and feeling that history would accord him a place as a patriot for this reason, has refused to take any part in the existing Government. He has played the same part in the Philippine struggle which Gen. Lee, the great Confederate leader, took after our civil war. He preferred to be president of a small college in his native State rather than participate in a Government he had fought to overthrow."

"It is our business to prepare the people of the islands for self-government," continued Dr. Schurman. "If the Declaration of Independence was good for us, it's good for them. In a word, what we have done for Cuba in a short time I would like to see done for the Philippines in a reasonably longer time. The principle enunciated by our forefathers in the declaration of independence of government for the people and by the people must be retained and illustrated in our dealings with other nations and other peoples. There are too many Americans whose fathers died to free the black race who now assert that no one but the white man is capable of self-government. I hope to see Porto Rico a State. I don't believe that the United States is incapable of governing provinces, but I do believe that by the Constitution we are I don't believe that the United States is incapable of governing provinces, but I do believe that by the Constitution we are estopped from doing certain things which the King of England or the Czar of Russia can do. I believe what has been done in the islands was wise and expedient and I don't believe that any other party, had it been in power, would have adopted a materially different policy. No better administration could have been given the Filipinos than that of Gov. Taft."

Gov. Taft."

Dr. Schurman characterized the war between Russia and Japan as a struggle of brute force. He said the issues were to be determined without reference to right. In the modern world Russia stands preeminently for force, he said. In referring to the Northern Pacific merger Dr. Schurman praised the attitude of the American people for waiting so serenely while the courts were determining the rights of capital and the public. "Just think of a nation of 70,000,000 of people not seizing the sword when these interests were at stake, but calmly waiting for the decision of the courts. When the decision finally arrived the people accepted it with equanimity."

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 20 .- The New York National League team had a respite from training to-day and spent their first Sabbath in Birmingham sightseeing. The local Southern League club would like to have the call on any players that McGraw does not intend to retain and is particularly desirous of securing the services of Pitcher Minnehan. President Hough had a long talk with McGraw this morning. He wanted to take any of the try-out New Yorkers, with the understanding that they be returned to New York at the close of the season. McGraw said he had not decided upon the future of his youngsters yet, but that he would like to fayor the local management when he did. Minnehan, realizing that he is not likely to get much work with the Polo Grounds outfit this season, is willing to play here if his boss will let him. York National League team had a respit

OPERA HARMONIZER WANTED. If He Isn't Found the Stranded French

Troupe Will Have to Walk Home. The one thing lacking in the busted French Opera Company seems to be harmony, and on that account the concert for which Herr Conried offered the use of the Metropolitan Opera House to-morrow night is not likely to take place. For one thing, the singers, the orchestra and the chorus don't agree with Mr. Louis Verande, the representative of the departed M. Charley. Then Mr. Verande doesn't agree with the singers, the chorus and the orchestra. Mme. Guinchan, the prima donna, doesn't seem to agree with anybody.

So much is deduced from the following statement received by THE SUN last night from a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the Cercle Français in Sixth avenue.

We are asking ourselves by what title and by what right Mr. Louis Verande poses himself as champion and why he attempts to exterminate all of us by disguising the truth in the newspaper interviews. We positively deny his statement. He is mistaken (!!) when he states that the management owes us very little and that the troupe is unworthy of interest. If such were so, why did the manager disappear? ager disappear?

It is a fact that some have hardly received It is a fact that some have hardly received one-fourth of their salary, and as for the appreciation of Mr. Verande concerning the troupe, the past of every one of us, our sincerity, is a guarantee of our morality. To a certain extent we understand that Mr. Verande tries to whitewash his master—the old saying, "By the valet one knows the master."

We do not want to start an argument with

"By the valet one knows the master."
We do not want to start an argument with Mr. Verande, and also not tire your respectable readers by lengthy discourses, but will mention the fact that he has been living for four months with the troupe which he now seems to despise. We think that the testimony of 100 people weighs more in the balance of truth than the testimony of a single interested party.

GENTLEMEN: When the French Opera Company made their debut at the Casino I could not appear as I had a severe cold. Since then things went so bad that the manager, M. Charley, left without paying any one. You do not ignore that in such cases there are always some worthy people enough—the choristers and stage hands—who are utterly without means, who must be helped.

Mr. Conried, to whom we made known these circumstances, immediately offered to lend us the Metropolitan so that we could give a concert to send them back to their country. The delegates came, and it was understood that I loaned my concours, which I would do with all my heart. I was to sing "Fidelio" from Beethoven and the third act of "Alda.

This morning the same delegates came and excused themselves, saying that MM. Bressler-Gianoli, Packbiers and Lusslef refused to sing if I did. I did not think that base jealousy was so mixed in this work of charity.

ATTACK NIAGARA POWER BILL. People's Institute at Its Anniversary Passes Denunciatory Resolutions.

People's Institute celebrated sixth anniversary last night in Cooper Union, aand the programme consisted of music and speeches by John De Witt Warner, Dr. Thomas R. Slicer, John Brooks Leavitt. Henry Cohen and Charles Sprague Smith, the managing director, who presided.

Prof. Smith introduced resolutions which were carried unanimously denouncing the Niagara, Lockport and Ontario Power Company bill, which has passed the Assem-bly and is now before the Senate. The resolutions call the measure "an audacious attempt to use the power of the State for private advantage."

"This is one of the most audacious bills of the year," said Mr. Smith, "and the people must be roused all over the State to de-feat it."

Henry Cohen, who investigated the bill at the instigation of the institute, said:

"This bill gives this company, without compensation, the right in perpetuity to take water from the Niagara River and to supply electricity in any part of the State, to take land anywhere for the purpose of its operations by condemnation, proceed. its operations by condemnation proceed-ings and overrides the charter restrictions on franchises in every city."

MYSTERY IN THIS MARRIAGE. Widower Fox Publishes Notice of His Wedding More Than Four Years Ago.

PORT CHESTER, N. Y., March 20.-The announcement to-day in a New York newspaper of the marriage of Thomas C. Fox of Port Chester and May Teresa Ellen of Boston, in Philadelphia on July 3, 1899, caused much surprise among the friends of Fox, who is constable here and lives with his father, Nicholas Fox, a veteran of the nis latner, Mcholas Fox, a veteran of the civil war.

Before Fox got home this evening his sister said: "I believe the whole thing is a joke. My brother's friends know that he is rather bashful and they may have inserted the notice as a leap year joke. I am certain he has never been in Philadelphia and none of us ever heard of the woman who is mentioned in the wedding notice. who is mentioned in the wedding notice."
When Fox returned home he surprised his family by saying that the announcement of his marriage was no joke. He was married five years ago, he said, and his wife died two years ago. Further than that he refused to discuss the matter.

He knows that the English sparrows are enemies which discourage the native birds, but holds the cats responsible in a larger measure for the disappearance of the catbirds, wrens, bluebirds and other native birds which were formerly plentiful in the neighborhood of the homes of city and suburban people. Of course, he knows that the cats get more sparrows than they do other birds, but his sympathy for the sparrows is no stronger than it is for the cats.

SPORTING GOSSIP OF TO-DAY.

EASTERN RACING SEASON WILL OPEN NEXT THURSDAY.

Big Meeting Promised at Washington Where Bennings Handleap is the First Feature-Placke, the Holland Champion Fighter, Said to Be as Green as Grass.

The Eastern racing season under the rule of the Jockey Club will begin next Thursday, at Washington, where the sport will continue daily until April 14, the day before the opening of the local campaign at Aqueduct. The feature of the first day at Washington will be the Bennings Spring Handicap, a dash of six furlongs for horses three years old and over. In the secent allotment of weights Karl Jungbluth's Western colt Santon received the top impost, 126 pounds, but he will not start, according to present indications. The Westbury Stable's Whorler got 125 pounds from the handicapper, and arrived at the track late last week in the care of John E. Madden, who is represented in the entry list by the three-year-old Pulsus, 115 pounds; the five-year-old City Bank, 112 pounds, and the three-year-old Robin Hood, 109 pounds.

Just what Madden will send to the post remains a mystery, but that his colors will be seen in the race there seems to be no doubt. J. Boden's Rosetint, 119, and Misterman, 118, are in the list, and it is understood man, 118, are in the list, and it is understood that the latter has been working particularly well recently. The Goughacres Stable's nominations are Athel, Latheron, Gold Ribbon, and Bluish. F. R. Hitchcock's Castalian, 116, who will be ridden by Shaw, is already high in favor, while W. C. Daly's Himself, 115, who has already won this handlean twice is another popular idea. dicap twice, is another popular idol. Daly has been getting Himself ready for Washington for some time past, in spite of the hard weather, and says the game old horse will turn the trick again. Daly also has Illyria, 109, and Tomcod, 96, ready to race.

H. T. Griffin, who has not yet received a license from the Jockey Club, because of the Sweet Pepper scandal at New Orleans has Conundrum, Payne, Stroller and Conkling at the track, and all are eligible to start if the authorities say the word. H. F. Schultz's Honolulu, Frank Farrell's Colonist, Monadnock and Pretorius; O. L. Richards's Gold Dome, Jugai Bey, Lord Advocate and Briarthorpe; the Columbia Stable's Graziallo and Toscan, W. R. Midgley's Tribes Hill, C. F. Fox's Ascension, "Virginia" Bradley's Paul, John McCue's Monte Carlo, Foster's Mrs. Frank Foster, S. S. Bender & Co.'s Lord Melbourne and O'Hagen, T Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Sailmaker, A. L. Aste's Typhonic and other well known sprinters complete the eligible list.

Steeplechasing will be a feature at this meeting, an open event on the first day being the initial jumping race of the year, the owner, trainer and rider of the winner to receive a silver mug donated by a well known patron cross country sport. On Saturday there of cross country sport. On Saturday there will be two steeplechases, the Chevy Chase Handicap and a selling affair. The track is reported to be sandy and slow, but indications are their it will not be so muddy and unreliable as it was last year. The meeting promises to be successful in view of the large number of horses already at the track and others that are on their way. An army of bookmakers and their clerks, together with Pinkertons and regulars, will go over to Washington on Wednesday. From New Orleans, Hot Springs and California the rest of the talent will come, so that when the bugle blows Thursday afternoon for the first time there will be a big crowd of racing enthusiasts on hand.

Much activity was displayed at the Long Island tracks yesterday. The first tinge of spring weather put new life into the horses and their trainers. All of the best known horses were out on the track either at Gravesend or Sheepshead Bay, while others stuck to the Ocean Boulevard. Many turfmen of prominence visited the scene in automobiles and seemed delighted with the prospect of an early resumption of the sport of kings. Frank Regan arrived at Aqueduct on Saturday with Dick Turpin, Oarsmen and other horses that have been racing in Frisco all winter.

The Holland champion. Placke, who has been matched to fight Kid McCoy in Philadelphia next month, has been tried out by a well known puglilst, who says the giant knows nothing about the game of hit, stop and get away, and who freely predicts that McCoy will cut him into ribbons with ridiculous ease. These are the kinds of easy marks that McCoy has tackled for years, much to his extreme bleasure. But will the Kid fight old man Fitzsimmons when he is confronted with an actual match? Fitz, by the way, has been barred from the California fighting clubs because of his age. One of the promoters says Robert might be seriously hurt in another encounter. But in Philadelphia this odd opinion does not prevail, for the promoters are doing their best to bring Fitz and either Ruhlin or Hart together. A visit to Fitz's training quarters at Bath Beach the other day disclosed the fact that the "old man" is getting into magnificent shape again and wants to tackle any of the "heavies."

A consensus of expert opinion would seem to indicate that Young Corbett will defeat Jimmy Britt when they cross arms at Frisco next Friday night. Dave Sullivan, who knows how well Corbett can fight, says that Britt will not last five rounds. Corbett will be a favorite at pretty stiff odds. The conditions of the match call for the men to scale 131 pounds at 6 o'clock P. M., the money to be divided 65 per cent. to the winner and 35 per cent. to the loser. Britt is an out-and-out lightweight, who is believed to possess championship timber. When the men enter the ring three hours after weighing in both will be in the lightweight class, which is further evidence that Young Corbett has no further claim on the featherweight title.

This is the time of the year that baseball fans are told that all the players picked up on trial by the big league clubs are surely "wonders" and "phenomenons." But not until the comparative novices have been up against the veterans in red hot championship contests can a line on their worth be secured. Because a mipor league pitcher strikes out a dozen amateurs in a practice game does not mean that he is a Chesbro or a Matthewson, for the real test does not come until he faces the skilled batsmen like Lajoie and Wagner, Keeler and Collins. A player who strikes out ten men and whitewashes his opponents one day is a hero. But if, in his next try, he is batted out of the box, he is roasted alive. It is the player who makes good a greater part of the time who holds the esteem of the baseball fans, who, like the Missourians, must be shown before they will believe. Therefore it is well to take the reports concerning alleged "wonders" and "phenomenons" with plenty of salt.

GOLF.

Three open tournaments will be on simultaneously this week, at each the aspirants for cups including players who will be at Lakewood on April 21, 22 and 23, to take part in the first of the Metropolitan Golf Association round of tournaments. To-day there will be two of the tournaments started, at will be two of the tournaments started, at the Palmetto Golf Club, Aiken, S. C., and at St. Augustine, Fla., where the annual championships will continue for a fortnight.

The third tournament is nearer to Manhattan and will have as contestants a number who will run down from the city for the contest. It will be at the Atlantic City Country Club on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The qualification round at thirty-six holes will be on Thursday, the first sixteen being eligible for the 1904 Governor's cup, the second sixteen for the President's cup, the third sixteen for a special prize and so on for as many sixteens as turn in scores, There will also be a special consolation event on Friday and an eighteen-hole medal play handicap on Saturday.

AUSTRALIAN FIGHTER HERE. Tackle Any One in His Class.

Arthur Cripps, the middleweight champion boxer of Australia, arrived here yesterday in quest of a match or two and incidentally in quest of a match or two and incidentally some American dollars. According to the Australian's manager, Sam Fitzpatrick, he is willing to take on any middleweight on this side of the pond and for any amount.

Cripps is the ideal build of a legitimate middleweight, standing 5 feet 9½ inches in his ring togs and weighing about 152 pounds. He is a well put up fellow with a ruddy complexion and the hardy, healthy appearance of an athiete. The antipodean's introduction to the ring occurred in 1900, when he won the amateur middleweight championship of Queensland. Since then he has been only once defeated, that time in a twenty-round bout with Mike Williams at catch weights, when Cripps gave away twenty-eight pounds. Cripps won the middleweight championship from Jack Thompson, whom he beat twice, once in seventeen rounds and the other in twenty rounds. Cripps is 25 years of age.

The Scottish National Championship took place on the grounds of the Glasgow Agricultural Society on the same date over a ten mile course. James Rankin of the Edinburgh Harriers won the individual honors and the team prize went to this club with a total of 60 points.

Encouraged by their showing at the Mohawk A. C. run on Washington Birthday, in which they secured first, second and third place, and team and novice prizes, the Mott Haven A. C. members have decided to hold an open cross-country run, handicap, on Sunday, April 10. The run will start at the Jerome Avenue Hotel and the turn will be at the Yonkers boundary line, a distance of about nine miles. Prizes will be awarded to first, second and third men, in addition to team and time trophies.

Preparatory to the regular handicap run on next Sunday, the Pastime A. C. held a practice run yesterday, starting from the Jerome Avenue Hotel, and the runners covered six miles over the regular course. The order of finish was:

Included in the new opposition move-ment to Mason are Robert C. Morris, Frank H. Partridge, who once contested the leadership with Mason and got 600 votes, William Einstein, Matthew C. Flemming, Newbold Morris, Henry A. Uterhart, Edward W. Harris, and Lawrence E. Brown. All of them belong to the new Plaza Central hepublican Club, which was formed two months ago by combining two of the largest Republican clubs in the district. The Plaza club is the home of the Partridge faction, whose ticket got 600 votes to Mason's 900 at the last contest in the district. The Central Park Republican Club was formed two years ago and has been the home of a lot of Republicans who haven't shared the confidence of the Mason-Tauterbach Flaster complication although Lauterbach-Elsberg combination, although many were members of the Iwenty-ninth Assembly District Club, which is the Mason organization. The membership of the new interest in the political work of our district for the past five years and has resulted in a onstantly decreasing Republican plurality, which clearly shows the necessity for a change in the party management. We appeal to the enrolled Republicans throughout the district to lend their active support to the ticket which we will put in the field, as the first step toward building up the party in the district and preparing for effective work in the coming national campaign."

If the anti-Masonites win it is asserted If the anti-Masonites win it is asserted that there will be an entire reorganization of the district and a return to the principles of representative government. In the five years that Mason has been leader, so the opposition folks say, he has rarely met any Republicans except at his own club, and has made no attempt to know the workars in the district. Most of the time that he wanted to be Park Commissioner, but Mayor Low did not appoint him, one reason being, it was said, because he was counsel for the Ice Trust, which had been an issue in the campaign. Mr. Mason thought that Robert C. Morris, then president of the county committee, along with others, could have forced Mayor Low to appoint him, and it

Good Matches at Sheehan's, Casey's, Devotees of the game in all quarters had a gala time yesterday, the fine weather filling the courts in New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City. At Sheehan's court, 2011 Third avenue, there were several good matches, one of the most hotly contested being between J. Foley and Jim Bell and S. Foley and J. Durkin. It was a five game rubber and the former pair won by 3 games to 2. Bell was so elated over his success that he challenged any player from the northern counties of Ireland for a home and home match with the
